

This Valentine activity is great for using up the odd and ends of your craft supplies and doesn't rely on precision to look festive & fabulous!

Limit supplies to Valentine hues of red, pink, lavender & purple, or buck tradition and make hearts in every shade of the rainbow.

MATERIALS

- Heart Template
- Scissors
- Construction Paper
- Paper Plate
- Glue
- A variety of objects in different textures, shapes, & shades:
  - pom poms
  - beads
  - pipe cleaners
  - felt
  - tissue paper
  - popsicle sticks
  - google eyes
  - buttons
  - sequins
  - string/ribbon
  - scraps of wrapping paper, craft paper, or cut-outs from magazines

DIRECTIONS

1. Print out the heart template and cut it out.
2. Allow the child to trace the heart template onto construction paper.
3. Have the child select objects from a number of options. Set them aside on a paper plate.
4. Provide the child with glue and let them decorate away!
5. Optional: have them, or help them, write a note on the sheet for the recipient.
